S. M. JAMISON, P. M. The Mining Law Amended

The bill to amend Sections 2,324 and 2.325 of the Revised Statutes of the lands, has passed Congress and is now a law. It reads as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House Section 2.325 of the Revised Statutes of the United States be amended by adding That when the claimant for a patent is ly requested to call and examine. Sammot a resident of the sand district wherein ples sent free on application. the vein, lode, ledge or deposit sought to be patented is located, the affidavits required to be made in this section by the claimant for such patent may be made by his, her or its authorized agent, when said agent is conversant with the facts sought to be established by said affidavits: And, provided, That this sec-tion shall apply to all applications now pending for patents for mineral lands."
Sec. 2. That Section 2,324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States be amended by adding the following words: Provided, That the period within which the work required to be done annually on all patented mineral claims shall commence on the 1st day of January succeeding the date of such claim, and this section shall apply to all claims located since the 10th day of May, A.D.

Under the new management of Mr. Lindley, the old Winchel & Cuningham store shows to much better advantage. The removal of the office portion has made quite a difference.

Babies at the Reform Club.

REEO, Nevada, Feb. 17, 1880. EDITOR JOURNAL:-Will you allow me to say a few words in answer to the parenth tical question that was asked in Monday evening's Gazette, namely, What on earth can induce a woman to take a baby to a crowded house?".

It is barely possible that the babies were brought out "in strong force" to the Reform Club meeting last Saturday evening, that they might gain the latest and most valuable ideas on the mysteries of "Law and Politics" and while yet in their early youth, form the right notions of music and elecution. This may have been the reason, but I am more inc inel to believe that many tired, wearied women, longing for recreation and thoughts beyond the bounds of home, cancht the enthusiasm of friends and determined to go and see for themselves what the reform folks were doing even if they did have to take the babies with them.

not able to afford competent narses for their children, consequently what little amusement they can afford themselves must be taken with their hearts and hands burdened with their "troublesome comforts." If the babies only keep still the mothers anatch a few moments of enjoyment, and are more than repaid for their worry when the restless fits occur. And sappose they become decidedly noisy and have to be carried nome: I will refer again to the article mentioned, "One crying baby can make a thousand people swear long mental oaths." Now I do not for a moment wish to express the idea that when listening to an interesting orator, reader or singer it is at all pleasant to any one to be disturbed by a crying child; but if it is vexing to those who have no responsibility in the matter who can forget all about it the moment the house is quiet, how much more annoying must it be to that mother (I don't think the infant terrible itself can be peculiarly happy) to be obliged to leave the hall while the whole audience is staring at her. Embarrassed and disappointed at losing the entertainment the poor mother returns home with the memory of cross looks and ill-natured remarks (and the baby) that she saw and heard when the fretting commenced. Now it seems to me, at gatherings large and small, if all present would show more forebearunusual, a child could be quieted quickly or removed by the parent, and none be the worse for its having been present. Let mothers continue to bring their infants where the great principles of total abstinence will be reductively instilled into their minds, for who knows but that these little ones who do not now seem to fully appreciate the fine entertainments prepared for Saturday nights, may be Presidents, First Vice President. Second Vice President, etc., etc., in the Retorm Club twenty years from this time. Hoping this will not require too much space in your valuable paper, I ONE WHO WAS THERE.

N PRESENTING THE ABOVE NAME TO the people of this city and adjacent counties, we desire to explain fully the motives and objet as of our business; the manner and style in which we inter diding openiess, and why it is to the interest of the public to support the views we take uake Our business transactions will all be based on

STRICT CASH PAYMENT PLAN. By this we mean that purchases must be accompanied by Cash, and

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL ANY GOODS BE CHARGED.

Our motives for thus doing might, if not expinined see mexacting; into one moment—and we shall ack you, "How do you expect to buy a" low races and pay for the tollowing extract which, mind yo; must and is always added to the goods you buy?"

The following items we save, not for our selves, but for the patrons of our house:

First—We save the cost of a Book-keeper and Collector. Second—By avoiding the losses occasioned by non paying customers.

third—By saving the interest at lipercent per month on $4,00. invested in book accounts Fourth-By saving any oncissions in charging or goods that would be sold or eredit.

Fifth—By always having the cash in the drawer rate goods on the shell, thereby saving the expense of paying or woods before the book accounts could be collected.

Stath—And most important by the reduction in prices of goods we buy; for where we have the ris y tach to pay down fir any article we drain, we can always buy pools at a reduced price, and naturally can afford to rell cheaper, and ye have as such profit; for when buying on time, and paying in three or four months thereafter, a merchant certainly pays a higher price for his goods then one who has the ready each to pay immediately. And it evidently allows, and is an indisputable fact, the any house doing a redut business cannot sell at as low a price of one doing a
